About children, being children

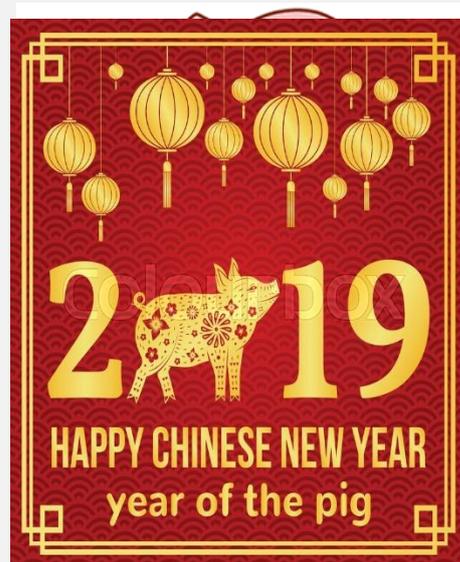

This Week at Endeavour Hills:

Monday 4th - Friday 8th February 2019

Dear Families,

The children and educators have been busy getting back into the start of the Term with different activities in all rooms. This week we celebrated Chinese New Year with lots of artwork from the children. This year it is the Year of the Pig!

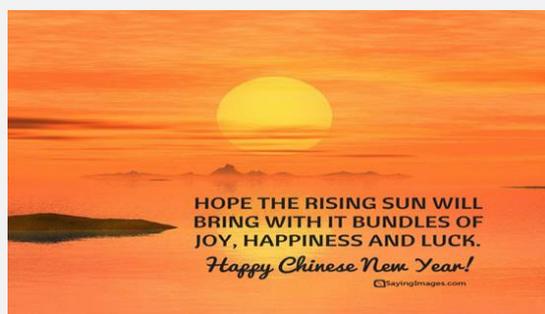

The Kinder children enjoyed their first fortnightly swimming lessons on Monday. Lots of happy and positive comments back from parents.

Reminders:

Swimming has started up in Term 1 again on Mondays for the Kinder children. Please bring clearly labelled swimming bags for your child.

Quote of the week:

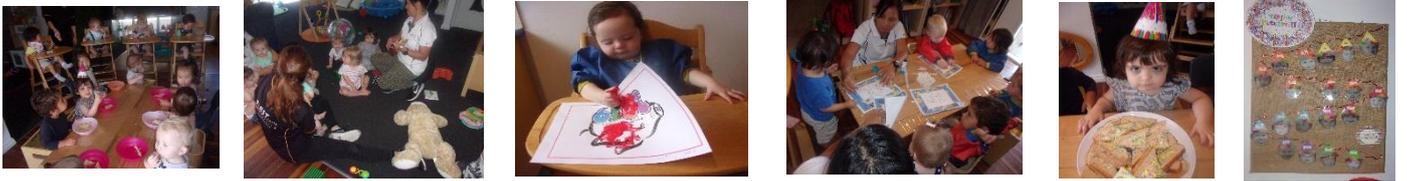

Staffing News:

Mewanda A/L 13th Feb 2019

This week in the Acacia House

The Acacia House have been learning about Sun Smart and wearing our hats when we are outside. They have been enjoying rolling the beach balls around the room all together. The book of the week they read was "Spot Goes on Holiday" and a Sun Smart Pasting for their art and craft activity.

This week in the Myrtle House

This week the Myrtle House children have been learning about Chinese New Year. For art and craft activities this week the children painted pigs red, dot painting a dragon with the colours red, yellow and green. The children enjoyed dancing to the Chicken Dance and Gummy Bear and they read the book "Peek a Boo".

This week in the Waratah House

This week in the Waratah House the children hand painted crabs, enjoyed sand pasting and Chinese New Year craft. For a sensory activity the children enjoyed frozen ocean animal rescue. Following on from the Ocean theme they all discussed the different objects and shapes we can find under the sea.

This week in the Kinder

The Kinder children this week have been discussing about their families and who is in their family. For a craft activity they made a family tree using their hand prints. The book of the week was "Brave Little Chick" and the song/Rhyme of the week is "Open, Shut them". The children have been enjoying their morning Yoga exercises with Mrs Gardonyi before they start their day.
